MDA
LEADERSHIP

Who will LEAD your organization in the future?

Experienced leaders of the baby boomer generation continue to retire at a pace of 10,000 per day.¹ This means leadership continuity will remain a top priority in boardrooms and executive suites.

Unfortunately, most organizations are not ready. Two-thirds of U.S. public and private companies report that they have no formal CEO succession plan in place, according to a survey conducted by the National Association of Corporate Directors. And only one-third of the executives who have such a program in place are satisfied with the outcome.² As such, boards and CEOs at all organizations—from Fortune 100 companies to nonprofits—know they need to craft effective succession plans for their CEOs and senior teams.

CEO & Board Advisory Services

High-integrity and high-impact leadership are today's expected business norms. As CEOs and boards seek ever higher degrees of performance, MDA Leadership helps them achieve more, both individually and collectively. MDA senior consultants, expert in the needs and demands of senior management, work alongside leaders to help them plan for the future. Of note, 95% of the CEOs MDA Leadership has helped organizations select have remained in their roles for at least four years or longer. This is an astounding record of selection insight, considering current CEO turnover rates.

CEO SERVICES || Forging Leadership Continuity

MDA Leadership helps organizations accelerate succession success and minimize the disruption and risk associated with CEO transition.

CEO Blueprinting™

The CEO Blueprinting™ process guides organizations through the critical task of articulating the leadership they need from the next CEO within the context of their strategies and plans for growth. The insights contained in the Blueprint™ go beyond core capabilities for performance, addressing leadership style, motivation, and culture fit. Boards find great value in having early alignment around CEO role expectations for the future (the what) before any candidates are discussed (the who).

CEO Succession and Selection

Based on the CEO Blueprint™ or other board criteria, we evaluate internal candidates to provide a definitive and well-grounded assessment of CEO viability.

Our evaluation sheds light on others' willingness to follow and also addresses the key experiences and development needed to prepare for transition and accelerate learning. If needed, we use an equivalent assessment to evaluate external candidates and provide comparisons on fit and viability.

CEO Transitions

CEOs are often left on their own to navigate their new relationships, roles, and agendas. Whether the executive is a first-time CEO, newly promoted within the same organization, or an external CEO brought on board to drive significant change, success is not a given. CEO transition coaching provides a framework for quickly aligning board, CEO, and senior team expectations. We also work with retiring CEOs, helping them to determine how to let go and set new pathways for their futures.

CEO Blueprint™ Components

MDA's executive transition process is well-thought-out. They are here to guide our new executives and acclimate them to the senior team and organization at large. MDA gets our senior executives performing at a high level quickly.

C-SUITE SELECTION & SUCCESSION

Delivering Leadership Excellence for the Future

MDA Leadership helps CEOs articulate executive leadership needs, identify top talent, and accelerate C-suite transitions.

Senior Executive Blueprinting™

Succession planning begins at the top. CEOs, in partnership with Human Resources and their boards, must think carefully about the talent they need for the future in key leadership roles. Similar to CEO Blueprinting™, MDA Leadership helps our clients articulate the executive leadership they will need to successfully navigate emerging business challenges and drive evolving strategies.

C-suite Selection and Succession

Not all C-suite hires and promotions achieve success. We help CEOs select the right executives by bringing an informed, experienced, and objective voice to the table. Based on a CEO's criteria and an organization's norms, we assess and analyze executive candidates to provide definitive and well-grounded promotion and hiring recommendations.

C-suite Transitions

About 60% of executives say they were not prepared for the strategic challenges they faced in their new senior leadership roles.³ MDA Leadership accelerates effective transition into the C-suite. Through a unique discovery process, we help executives gain deep insight into what it will take to be successful given stakeholder expectations, team dynamics, and the nuances of C-suite leadership. Our seasoned coaches guide leaders in designing and executing highly relevant and engaging onboarding plans.

BOARD SERVICES | Enhancing Board Effectiveness

MDA Leadership helps boards strengthen their governance roles and internal dynamics.

Board Evaluations

Most boards are required to evaluate their own performance on an annual basis—an exercise that can range from “checking the box” to an experience that truly engages board members in the right conversations. Our services include full board evaluations, individual director reviews, peer feedback, chair role transitions, and action planning.

Board and CEO Consultation

Creating strong board and CEO collaboration requires mutual trust and respect. Forging and maintaining productive relationships cannot be left to chance. MDA Leadership provides trusted advisor consultation for CEOs and their boards to foster alignment in critical areas such as decision-making, role clarity, governance, and communication.

CEO Coaching and Trusted Advisor Consultation

Two-thirds of CEOs don't receive any outside advice on their leadership skills, and yet almost all would be receptive to suggestions from a coach.⁴ Since a one-size-fits-all playbook for CEOs doesn't exist, MDA Leadership provides CEO coaching. Whether business performance is hitting the mark or not, even seasoned CEOs benefit from the safe place and counsel we provide to help them evolve their leadership.

MDA Leadership's CEO Blueprinting™ process takes disparate input and opinions, then aligns and crystallizes them, so that the board and leadership team are on the same page, creating clarity and alignment for all.
